1. INTRODUCTION

State Life Insurance Corporation (SLIC) is a state-owned entity established under Life Insurance (Nationalization) Order 1972 that is regulated by Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan (SECP). SLIC offers insurance services to its clients and is functioning globally. Majority of the business SLIC conducts deals with individual life policies, however, it has also expanded its operations to Health Insurance. In addition to conventional line of business, SLIC also offers Takaful services which is growing rapidly. The individual life policies are sold via agencies or through banking channels. Moreover, SLIC has been also offering group life insurance to its prestigious clients for a long period of time. This constitutes various types of products including pension plans based on Defined Contribution and Defined Benefit scheme.

As the leading insurer of Pakistan with AAA rating from PACRA, SLIC currently has a base of around 6 million policyholders protected under the umbrella of its individual life business and more than 6 million covered under Group business. Each year around 97.5% of the surplus is distributed to the policyholder in the form of bonuses and the remaining is paid to the Government of Pakistan.

Bidders are requested to gain deeper insight into the SLIC by visiting SLIC website, for better understanding of operations.

2. SCOPE (CLASSES OF BUSINESS WRITTEN)

SLIC is seeking separate reinsurance arrangements for the following:

- i. Individual Life Insurance (Conventional) – Pakistan with Riders
 - a. Agency Channel
 - b. Bancassurance/Corporate Insurance Agents
- ii. Group Life insurance (Conventional) – Pakistan with Riders

A contract of three years will be made with successful bidder which will be renewable with mutual agreement on same terms and conditions. The reinsurer will remain liable to reinsure all the underwritten policies inforce at the termination date until their natural expiration unless the parties decide otherwise with a mutual agreement. Example: State Life underwrites a 20 years policy of Mr. Xi on 01.01.27 and gets it re-insured from XYZ re-insurers. The re-insurance arrangement of MR. X will continue with XYZ re-insurers up to the end of policy term of Mr. Xi i.e., up to 01.01.2047

Individual Life Business

Business written in the books of SLIC follows Underwriting guidelines that cover many characteristics of policyholders to assess potential risks involved. The guidelines majorly evaluate Moral, Medical and Financial aspects of the policy. Over the period of time SLIC has introduced numerous products to cater for the needs of policyholders. At present, the portfolio of Pakistan Business majorly comprises of conventional policies with Endowment products constituting over 96% of the business. Other prevalent products are Whole Life, Anticipated Endowment Plan, Universal Life and Term Insurance. The endowment products are offered in many variations which include joint life endowments, child education plans, progressive premium and single premium. The total inforce face amount for the Pakistan Business is approximately 2.9 trillion PKR with an addition of PKR 500-600 billion annually in the form of new policies is expected for 2027 onwards. A brief description of the types of products sold in the name of Individual Life is attached as “Annexure 2-A”.

Group Life Business

SLIC's group life portfolio comprises of group term products usually offered for a term of one year with supplementary riders in the form of accidental death, permanent and partial disabilities, accidental hospitalization benefit rider and critical illness etc. Group insurance services are provided to both commercial and Government sector. Post-retirement benefits are also offered at the discretion of clients. Group products are priced using factors such as Mortality, Occupational Loading, Experience rating, Expense Charges, Commission charges, etc. A brief description of Group products is attached as “Annexure 2-B”.

Riders

In addition to these products there are supplementary riders¹ that can be attached to individual life policies at the discretion of the insured. A brief description of SLIC major products and Supplementary Riders is provided in “Annexure 2-C” and Annex 2-D

3. EXISTING REINSURANCE ARRANGEMENT

SLIC has been using treaty reinsurance services for its Pakistan business. An overview of the existing reinsurance arrangements is as follows:

Pakistan Life Fund

Individual Life (Surplus Treaty)

- Retention Limit of PKR 5 million
i.e.; Sum at Risk Formula (SAR) = Original Sum Assured including FIB and TIR if any, less actuarial reserve, less Retention
If TIR or FIB is attached to the policy, the sum assured amount of TIR and commuted value of FIB will be added to SAR.
- Multiple riders such as Family Income Benefit (FIB), TIR, Accidental Death Benefit (ADB), Accidental Indemnity Benefit (AIB) etc. are also reinsured.

Group Life Fund

Group Life Insurance (Surplus Treaty)

- Retention Limit equal to PKR 5 million
- ADB Rider having a retention limit of 5 million
- PTDA Rider having a retention limit of 5 million

4. REINSURANCE SERVICES REQUIRED

SLIC is seeking for reinsurance services for its Individual life and Group life products and supplementary Riders. SLIC intends to refresh its reinsurance portfolio in line with its existing reinsurance arrangements in a way that there is not much change in the overall risk profile of the corporation and the proportion of business ceded. However, SLIC is open to improvements in the maximum coverages for its different lines of business, especially with respect to its Group Life Portfolio. All products and riders given in section 2 need to be covered.

For the purposes of this Contract, "Force Majeure" means an event which is beyond the reasonable control of a Party and which makes a Party's performance of its obligations under the Contract impossible or so impractical as to be considered impossible under the circumstances, and includes, but is not limited to, war, riots, civil disorder, earthquake, fire, explosion, storm, flood or other adverse weather conditions, strikes, lockouts or other industrial actions (except where such strikes, lockouts or other industrial actions are within the power of the Party invoking Force Majeure to prevent), confiscation or any other action by government agencies.

Force Majeure shall not include (i) any event which is caused by the negligence or intentional action of a Party or such Party's agents or employees, nor (ii) any event which a diligent Party could reasonably have been expected to both (A) take into account at the time of the conclusion of this Contract and (B) avoid or overcome in the carrying out of its obligations hereunder.

Force Majeure shall not include insufficiency of funds or failure to make any payment required hereunder.

The failure of a Party to fulfill any of its obligations under the Contract shall not be considered to be a breach of, or default under this Contract insofar as such inability arises from an event of Force Majeure, provided that the Party affected by such an event; (a) has taken all reasonable precautions, due care and reasonable alternative measures in order to carry out the terms and conditions of this Contract; and (b) has informed the other Party in writing not later than fifteen (15) days following the occurrence of such an event.

Any period within which a Party shall, pursuant to this Contract, complete any action or task, shall be extended for a period equal to the time during which such Party was unable to perform such action as a result of Force Majeure.

q. Termination

The SLIC may terminate this Contract by not less than ninety (90) days written notice of termination to the company to be given after the occurrence of any of the events specified in paragraphs (a) to (c):

- a. if the company do not remedy a failure in the performance of their obligations under the Contract, within ninety (90) days after being notified or within any further period as SLIC may has subsequently approved in writing;
- b. if SLIC, in its sole discretion, decides to terminate this Contract.
- c. if, as the result of Force Majeure, the company is unable to perform a material portion of the Services for a period of not less than sixty (60) days;

r. Subletting

The Bidder shall not sublet, sell, transfer, assign any portion of the assignment without written consent of SLIC.

11. PERIOD OF CONTRACT

A contract of three years will be made with successful bidder, which will be renewable with mutual agreement on same terms and conditions. The reinsurer will remain liable to reinsure all the underwritten policies inforce at the termination date until their natural expiration unless the parties decide otherwise with a mutual agreement.

WHEREAS, as part of scope/execution of awarded of work, the SLIC shall provide financial, accounting, auditing and other proprietary information to Company (Recipient); and

WHEREAS, the parties mutually desire to set forth the terms and conditions of their agreement for maintaining the confidentiality of such information and certain related matters;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the agreements contained herein, and other good and valuable considerations, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. "Confidential Information" as used in this Agreement shall include all information provided by Disclosing Party to Recipient, except as noted herein, whether in oral, written, electronic, graphic, or other format, including without limitation: (a) Disclosing Party's financial and accounting information; (b) information regarding Disclosing Party's, or such party's corporate affiliates', financial condition or performance, business operations, plans, strategies or techniques, know how, products or services, pricing, past or current customer information, systems or system strategies, and marketing and distribution plans, methods or techniques; (c) any information that is marked "confidential," "proprietary," or with like words, or that is summarized in writing as being confidential prior to or promptly after disclosure to the other party; (d) any and all research, data and databases; (e) any models, source code, or other information contained within any software, model or system; (f) information relating to or arising from any software, models, modeling results or output; (g) insurance policy or policyholder information; (h) any reinsurance structures or risk management solutions created, disclosed or analyzed by Company; (i) any insurance or reinsurance underwriting and pricing information, and information relating to actuarial analysis and market capacity; (j) any third-party confidential information included with, or incorporated in, any information provided by Disclosing Party; and (k) designs, ideas, concepts, intelligence engineering, techniques, processes, methodologies, and technology embodied in any of the foregoing. Additionally, the parties agree that "Confidential Information" shall also include (a) the existence of this Agreement; (b) the fact that the Confidential Information exists or has been, or may be, made available to Recipient; (c) the identity of the parties involved in the Transaction, including without limitation the parties hereto, and the fact that either party hereto is considering or evaluating the Transaction; (d) the fact that discussions or negotiations are taking or have taken place concerning the Transaction, including those discussions or negotiations pertaining to this Agreement; and (e) any term, condition or other facts relating to the Transaction or such discussions or negotiations, including without limitation the status thereof.
2. Confidential Information shall not include information which: (a) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by Recipient in violation of this Agreement; (b) was available to or already known by Recipient on a non-confidential basis prior to its disclosure by Disclosing Party; (c) is developed by Recipient independently of any information acquired from Disclosing Party; or (d) becomes available to Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than Disclosing Party, provided that Recipient does not know that such source is bound by confidentiality obligations to Disclosing Party.
3. Each party agrees to exercise reasonable care to protect and prevent unauthorized disclosure of the other party's Confidential Information. Recipient may disclose Disclosing Party's Confidential Information to any of its affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives (collectively "Agents") who have a need to know such information in connection with the Transaction, provided that Recipient advises each such Agent of the requirements to maintain the confidential nature of the Confidential Information. Except as expressly authorized in writing by Disclosing Party, Recipient of such Confidential Information will not, and will not permit any of its Agents to, directly or indirectly, (a) report, publish, distribute, disclose, or otherwise disseminate the Confidential Information, or any portion thereof, to any third party or (b) use the other party's Confidential Information, or any portion thereof, for its own benefit or for the benefit of any of its Agents or any third party for any purpose (except as necessary for purposes of participating in or supporting the Transaction). Recipient acknowledges and agrees that it will be responsible for any breach of this Agreement by any of its Agents and agrees, at Recipient's sole expense, to take reasonable measures to restrain Recipient's Agents from prohibited or unauthorized disclosure or use of the Confidential Information.

4. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent disclosures pursuant to a court order, subpoena, or other requirement of any governmental or regulatory authority, provided that Recipient promptly notifies Disclosing Party in writing (to the extent legally permissible) of any such order or requirement and cooperates, at Disclosing Party's expense, in an effort to obtain a protective order from the issuing court or governmental or regulatory authority limiting disclosure and use of the information. If Disclosing Party does not timely obtain such protective order or if Disclosing Party consents to the Confidential Information being released, then Recipient may provide only the Confidential Information that is legally required to be disclosed.
5. Nothing in this Agreement precludes Recipient from disclosing any Confidential Information relating to Disclosing Party or the Transaction to the extent that the disclosure is made in any suit, action or proceeding (whether in law or in equity or pursuant to arbitration) involving the Transaction for the purpose of defending itself, reducing its liability or protecting or exercising any of its claims, rights, remedies or interests under or in connection with the Transaction.
6. The parties agree that impermissible disclosure or use of Confidential Information or other breach or violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement may cause irreparable harm to Disclosing Party and that remedies at law may be inadequate to protect against breach of this Agreement. The parties hereby agree in advance that Disclosing Party shall have the right, in addition to all other available remedies, to seek injunctive relief without proof of actual damages in order to prevent such acts, attempts and violations. Nothing herein shall prevent either party from competing in good faith for the business of any customer or customers, provided it does not use for such purpose any Confidential Information of the other party obtained in connection with the Transaction.
7. Each party understands and agrees that its access to and use of Confidential Information of the other party is at the sole control and discretion of such other party and that this Agreement does not establish any rights to continued access to or use of the Confidential Information furnished by the other party. Upon request of Disclosing Party, Recipient shall return or destroy all Confidential Information of Disclosing Party which is in its possession or subject to its control, except for archival and backup copies that are not readily available for use and business records required by law to be retained, which Recipient will continue to treat as confidential pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Additionally, upon request, such destruction of information shall be certified in writing to Disclosing Party by an authorized official of Recipient.
8. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and shall be binding upon, the parties hereto and their respective legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns. This Agreement may not be assigned by either party without the prior written consent of the other.
9. It is understood and agreed that any failure or delay in exercising any right granted in this Agreement shall not operate as a waiver of the right, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right preclude any other or further exercise of the right or the exercise of any other right granted in this Agreement.
10. If any provision of this Agreement shall be finally determined to be invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be deemed to be severed from this Agreement, but every other provision of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. With respect to any such provision so determined to be invalid or unenforceable, any court with jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter hereof shall have all necessary authority to rewrite such provision in order to provide for the enforceability thereof to the maximum extent permissible under law, and the parties hereto agree to abide by such court's determination.
11. The confidentiality obligations set out in this Agreement shall survive the termination of the business relationship between the parties and the termination of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto, by their duly authorized representatives, have caused this Agreement to be executed, effective as of the Effective Date set forth above.
